BUILDING PROJECT EXCAVATION NEARING COMPLETION

With the completion of shoring and excavation, construction of the new Cathedral is moving into its second phase - construction of the underground parking garage. This parking garage will replace 58 of the 61 parking spaces in the former parking lot. The new parking garage will be an all-concrete structure, and its base slab will be the foundation for the whole new Cathedral structure. The parking garage's roof slab will serve as the base slab for the rebuilt courtyard and the new Cathedral with its small side and back courtyards. The first steps in this phase involve installing the under-slab sewer lines, then the waterproofing system, and then the rebar for the foundation slab. Once the foundation slab is poured and cured, the waterproofing and rebar will be installed for the walls, and the wall concrete will be sprayed into place. Once the walls have cured, then the top slab can be formed, rebar installed, and the slab concrete poured.

All this concrete work will require a lot of rebar - some 260,000 pounds! Fortunately, a benefactor has stepped up to help: Isidoros Garifalakis owner of Omega Industries, a steel fabrication company headquartered in Vancouver, Washington. He has generously offered to supply all the rebar for the project at a price considerably below his material cost, as well as donating all the costs for shop fabrication, shipment, and delivery to the job site. This arrangement was the result of extensive four-sided negotiations between the Cathedral construction team, Isidoros, Dan McNely (the project contractor) and his rebar installation subcontractor. We are grateful to all the team members for diligently working to hammer out the conditions of this agreement, and, of course, especially grateful to Isidoros and his family for their generosity. The negotiation team is already hard at work sorting out a similar arrangement for the steel framework of the Cathedral itself.

Annunciation Sunday School Building Project

If you've been attending service over the past couple of months it's hard to miss the building enthusiasm shared by the youth of our church. This enthusiasm is more formally known as the Annunciation Sunday School Building Project.

During the school year there will be a variety of projects presented in church that allow the youth to interpret what building a new church means to them. Presentations are grouped in several ways including age, activity, or child's interest.

The aim of the Sunday School project is to allow the youth to take part in the historic building process of the Annunciation Cathedral. Just as many of you hold memories of the devastating 1989 earthquake, we want our youth to hold memories of building the new cathedral.

All pictures will be displayed on our building project shutterfly share site: https://annunciationsf.shutterfly.com/#:emid=site_calendarreminder&cid=SHARE3SXXXX. All members of the share site can view, copy, post, and order pictures of the projects. If you wish to be added to the share site, email Anastacia Ambus at: Tashaugr@yahoo.com.

MATCHING GIFTS FOR THE BUILDING PROJECT

A few months ago, one of our dedicated parishioners informed us that the company she works for offered to match any contributions made by any of their employees to non-profit organizations. The individual had already pledged $25,000. over five years to the building project, and had already submitted one payment in the amount of $5,000. this year. Recently, we were notified that the company would be sending a check for the same amount. This means that, potentially, this individual's pledge will go from $25,000 to $50,000!

If you have already pledged to the Capital Campaign and submitted a payment this year, or are planning to do so in the future, please inquire if your employer has a similar policy of matching gifts to non-profits. Please join us as we embark on this historic time in the history of our community. Every bit helps!

Cathedral Young Adults Hold First Ever Soup Kitchen at Annunciation!

After many months of planning and coordinating, our Cathedral Young Adult group organized a soup kitchen and food pantry at the Cathedral the evening of March 27! Hot food was served between 6:30-8:30, and non-perishable goods were also passed out to each individual as they left. Over 30 needy people were fed in the Kytherian Room that night, and over 30 volunteers came and helped, including 10 visitors from other parishes!

Given Annunciation Cathedral’s unique urban setting, and our community’s recent decision to build our new church and remain on Valencia Street, it behooves us to begin thinking of ways to adapt our ministries and programs to incorporate serving the inner-city. The success of this event demonstrates the tremendous potential for programs such as this, and other new ways of carrying the message of the Gospel into our neighborhood and city. Thank you to His Eminence, Metropolitan Gerasimos for joining us that evening and offering the opening prayer. Many, many thanks to Christina Tsiatis and Stefani Kalligeros, who coordinated the event, and to Harry Madeckas and Kokkari for cooking and donating the soup. Thanks, also, to Ari Stratakis and Productive Printing for making the banner and promotional materials at no cost, and to all the volunteers who brought food ingredients and non-perishable items.

 Our parish leadership is currently discussing how to make the soup kitchen an ongoing, regular program. If you are looking for opportunities to help or donate in the future, stay tuned for future announcements in the Herald and the Cathedral’s Facebook page. ***

St Seraphim of Sarov and the Vision of the Uncreated Light (Part 2)

"For the sheer benefit of spiritual edification I wanted to reproduce here the section from Valentine Zander's Life of St Seraphim of Sarov, where we have the description of the uncreated light of the grace of God."

— Marcelo P. Souza

St Seraphim of Sarov

And Father Seraphim continued: "When the Spirit of God comes down to man and overshadows him with the fullness of His inspiration, then the human soul overflows with unspeakable joy, for the Spirit of God fills with joy whatever He touches . . . What else do you feel, your Godliness?"

I answered: "An extraordinary warmth."

"How can you feel warmth, my son? Look, we are sitting in the forest. It is winter out-of-doors, and snow is underfoot. There is more than an inch of snow on us, and the snowflakes are still falling. What warmth can there be?"

I answered: "Such as there is in a bath-house when the water is poured on the stone and the steam rises in clouds."

"And the smell?" he asked me. "Is it the same as in the bath-house?" "No," I replied. "There is nothing on earth like this fragrance. When in my dear mother's lifetime I was fond of dancing and used to go to balls and parties, my mother would sprinkle me with scent which she bought at the best shops in Kazan. But those scents did not exhale such fragrance."

And Father Seraphim, smiling pleasantly, said: "I know it myself just as well as you do, my son, but I am asking you on purpose to see whether you feel it in the same way. It is absolutely true, your Godliness! The sweetest earthly fragrance cannot be compared with the fragrance which we now feel, for we are now enveloped in the fragrance of the Holy Spirit of God. What on earth can be like it?"

Mark, your Godliness, you have told me that around us it is warm as in a bath-house; but look, neither on you nor on me does the snow melt, nor does it underfoot; therefore, this warmth is not in the air but in us. It is that very warmth about which the Holy Spirit in the words of prayer makes us cry to the Lord: 'Warm me with the warmth of Thy Holy Spirit!'

By it the hermits of both sexes were kept warm and did not fear the winter frost, being clad, as in fur coats, in the grace-given clothing woven by the Holy Spirit. And so it must be in actual fact, for the grace of God must dwell within us, in our heart, because the Lord said: The Kingdom of God is within you (Lk. 17:21). By the Kingdom of God the Lord meant the grace of the Holy Spirit.

This Kingdom of God is now within us, and the grace of the Holy Spirit shines upon us and warms us from without as well. It fills the surrounding air with many fragrant odours, sweetens our senses with heavenly delight and floods our hearts with unutterable joy.

Our present state is that of which the Apostle says; The Kingdom of God is not food and drink, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit (Rom. 14:17). Our faith consists not in the plausible words of earthly wisdom, but in the demonstration of the Spirit and power (cp. I Cor.2:4).

That is just the state that we are in now. Of this state the Lord said: There are some of those standing here who shall not taste of death till they see the Kingdom of God come in power (Mk. 9:1).

See, my son, what unspeakable joy the Lord God has now granted us! This is what it means to be in the fullness of the Holy Spirit, about which St. Macarius of Egypt writes: 'I myself was in the fullness of the Holy Spirit.'

With this fullness of His Holy Spirit the Lord has now filled us poor creatures to overflowing. So there is no need now, your Godliness, to ask how people come to be in the grace of the Holy Spirit. Will you remember this manifestation of God's ineffable mercy which has visited us?"

"I don't know, Father," I said, "whether the Lord will grant me to remember this mercy of God always as vividly and clearly as I feel it now."

"I think," Father Seraphim answered me, "that the Lord will help you to retain it in your memory forever, or His goodness would never have instantly bowed in this way to my humble prayer and so quickly anticipated the request of poor Seraphim; all the more so, because it is not given to you alone to understand it, but through you it is for the whole world, in order that you yourself may be confirmed in God's work and may be useful to others.

The fact that I am a Monk and you are a layman is utterly beside the point. What God requires is true faith in Himself and His Only-begotten Son."

"Rejoice! Our Lady, Purest and most beautiful among women are you who have known no sin."

- Hymn from the Salutations service

Community Link Continues Ministering to Those in Need

Community Link, now in its ninth year of existence, is a group of Annunciation parishioners who meet once a month on a drop-in basis to visit members of our community who may be confined due to illness or age. We travel to hospitals, nursing homes and private residences. Many of those we visit no longer have family or friends to support them and just need to know there is someone who cares. A short visit or phone call can lift one’s spirits a great deal. If anyone in the community knows of any other home bound parishioners to add to our list or would like to join us for a visit, please contact, please contact Pauline Oetzel at poetzel@hotmail.com. Upcoming Community Link dates are: April 11 (a Friday), May 17, and June 21, at 9 am.
